Online Creative Writing Workshop

Mondays: 3-4:30pm

Thursdays: 11 am-12:30 pm

Writing is often thought of as something done in isolation; we know there is immense power when writing is done in community. Join us for creativity and community-building, with generative writing exercises, sharing and strengths-based feedback. Our workshop model, refined over 22 years, is proven for people of all writing levels: from the budding writer to the published author.

Location: Wherever you have access to reliable Wi-Fi or the Internet.

What you'll need:

- An electronic device with Internet, camera and microphone capabilities (E.g. tablet, iPad, Chromebook, laptop, desktop computer, cell phone)
- Pen and paper
- A quiet place for you to participate in the workshop fully

Workshop registration & login details:

- Pre-registration is required. Weekly registration opens 5 days before each session and closes one hour before the workshop. Visit <https://writearound.org/workshops/>.
- Sliding Scale Fee*: $5-30 per person. ($0 registration also available for past Write Around Portland participants at a social service agency and people experiencing financial hardship due to the coronavirus.)
- You will receive a Zoom link to the online workshop in your registration confirmation email. Zoom is an online video conferencing platform. It allows people to meet "live" at a scheduled time, like a face-to-face meeting.
- Workshop is limited to 10 adults. If you are 17 or under, please contact our Community Engagement Manager (contact listed below).
- Please log in on time for the full community writing experience.

Please don't hesitate to contact us in advance if you have any questions. To leave a voicemail call 503-796-9224; for a prompt response email Jenny Chu, Community Engagement Manager at jchu@writearound.org.

**All workshop fees support Write Around Portland's free community writing workshops in hospitals, prisons, affordable housing buildings, homeless shelters and at other social service agencies. For more information visit <https://writearound.org/>.*
